Many Fur Trimmed Garments in the Lot Manufacturer's Loss—Our Gain—Your Gain

This offering is possible through trade ills which have beset the manufacturers of practically all lines with the conclusion of the war. Our buyers are kept on the jump to keep in touch with the market, to be on hand that they may take advantage of every opportunity. This coat offering is the result of a hurried trip to New York by our coat buyer, with the result that tomorrow we are in position to offer you coats of fashion, quality and in variety that will amaze you at the price—coats that if we had to purchase them three weeks ago we would be compelled to ask to $40.00 for.

The models are particularly recommended for their smart and clever lines—some with the plain semifitting backs and belted fronts—others with snug-fitting bodice and full gathered skirt—yet there are many, many other styles too numerous to mention. The materials are the kinds best suited for fall and winter wear.

DECORATED MEMPHIAN RETURNS FROM ITALY

After having seen six months' service in Italy as a member of the American Red Cross and bearing the distinction of being the first Memphian to be decorated for bravery, Winstead H. Henderson, 1191 Vance avenue, is at home. He arrived Wednesday and is now at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Bailey Henderson.

Henderson made an effort to enlist in some fighting branch of the service, but was repeatedly rejected on account of a weak heart. He finally managed to get in the Red Cross and was sent to Italy. During the big Austrian offensive on the Piave Henderson was driving an ambulance and it was on account of his coolness under heavy fire and his hurrying back and forth in the midst of shrieking shells that he was rewarded with the Italian cross of bravery.

Since he has been away Henderson has taken part in two peace celebrations. When Austria threw up the sponge he was in Rome, Italy, and the celebration lasted two days, with the people delirious with joy over the good news. He was in Paris, France, when the general armistice was signed, and says that people celebrated for five days without stopping. They frequently went along the streets playing every body they met, according to Henderson, who modestly refrains from stating whether he was a voluntary beneficiary.

Prior to his enlistment, Henderson was secretary of the Columbia Mortgage and Trust company, and goes back to his old position Monday. He is a brother of Ben R. Henderson, a well-known Memphian.

Officers Re-Elected.

NATCHEZ, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—All officers of the Natchez chapter of the Red Cross have been re-elected to serve the coming year. The officers are: T. V. Wessel, chairman; Mrs. A. H. Patterson, vice-chairman; Samuel Geisenberger, treasurer; Miss Fannie Lowenburg, secretary. The election of the chairman of the standing committee will be taken up later.

"When a Child Droops"

Hurry, mother! Relieve the little stomach, liver and bowels of souring food, bile and poisons. Look at the tongue! Children love to take harmless "Cascarets" because Cascarets taste like candy—only 10 cents too!

Children droop and wither like tender flowers if you permit bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison to be absorbed into the system.

When a child's tongue is white, breath feverish, stomach sour, you can always depend upon good, safe "Cascarets" to gently but thoroughly clean the clogged-up places. Children love to take Cascarets, the candy cathartic which never gripes, never injures, never disappoints. Each 10 cent box contains directions and dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

The Dead

Sid Tate.
HUNTINGDON, Tenn., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—News has been received here of the death of Sid Tate at his home at Cairo, Ill. Mr. Tate lived in Huntingdon about 12 years ago and carried the mail on the line from here to Cedar Grove. He is a grandson of Ullaha Tate, with whom he resided at that time. Mr. Tate's death was caused by flu, and his wife and four children are also sick with the same disease. His body was brought to the Holly Leaf community, in this county, for interment.

B. B. Montgomery.
NEWBERN, Tenn., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—B. B. Montgomery, one of the best-known bookshelves in the county, is dead at his home near Bogota, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was unmarried and 58 years of age. He was in the draft from Dyer several months ago and was sent to a training camp, but was later given an honorable discharge.

Emil Cahn.
GRENADE, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Emil Cahn, 27, native of Leticia, Alaska, died in Grenada Tuesday of pneumonia following influenza. He had been in Grenada about two months at the time of his death. His body was taken to New Orleans for interment.

W. M. Robertson.
CONWAY, Ark., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—The body of William Milton Robertson, whose death occurred Tuesday morning, was interred Wednesday at noon after services at the Old Liberty church, conducted by Rev. H. E. Wheeler. Mr. Robertson was 23 years of age. Surviving him are his widow and three children, Mrs. Ella Carter and Mrs. H. H. Robertson, all of whom reside here.

Mrs. Jessie Dawson.
OKOLONA, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Mrs. Jessie Dawson died at her home here yesterday of influenza. She was the youngest daughter of Judge W. D. Prater, former district attorney of this district. She is survived by her husband and a small son.

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Boys of Mississippi between the ages of 8 and 18 will register in their respective schools Friday for active participation in either the boys' club work or Big United States boys' working reserve. Gov. Theo. G. Bilbo has issued a proclamation calling upon the boys to register.

RESIGNS OFFICE.
JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Frank W. Robertson, for almost two years assistant attorney-general of Mississippi, has tendered his resignation to Attorney-General Ross Collins, to become effective Feb. 1. Mr. Robertson resigns to begin his active campaign for attorney-general.

DEC. 13 NEXT W. S. DAY IN MAGNOLIA STATE

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Friday, Dec. 13, has been named "War Savings Day" in Mississippi, when residents of the state who pledged last June to buy $25,000,000 worth of these government securities will be asked to redeem their word in meetings to be held in every schoolhouse on that day. Twelve million dollars' worth of war savings stamps have already been purchased, leaving only $13,000,000 for the state to purchase between now and Jan. 1 in order to complete its quota.

State headquarters in Jackson is a busy place now arranging for the campaign. State Director Walter Bule and Executive Secretary George Power are both working hard on the proposition. Mr. Bule is confident that Mississippi will redeem her pledge, realizing, he says, that it is a tremendous undertaking.

WOUNDED IN FRANCE.
BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—Misses E. V. and Myrtle Brown, students of Blue Mountain college, have just been notified of the wounding of their brother in action in France. Private Jacobson U. Brown, Company H, 113th infantry, American expeditionary forces, was wounded in battle Oct. 22. Private Brown, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brown, of Thornton, Miss., entered the United States army last April.

LOSES $200 RING.
Mrs. W. F. Wheatley, 167 North Tenth street, reports to police the loss of a nine-stone diamond ring, valued at $200, and a locket and cuff buttons from her residence. It is believed the jewelry was stolen.

RINGWORMS ON BABY'S HEAD

Rough and Red. Hair Came Out. Cuticura Healed.

"When my little boy was a month old he had four large scaly-looking ringworms on the top of his head and they almost covered it. They were the worst I ever saw. They were rough, red, and some were white, and he cried most of the time. Every bit of his hair came out. "I tried everything that people would tell me but they did not help. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and then bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of the Cuticura Ointment and they healed him." (Signed) Mrs. L. Birchett, 205 Ford St., Ridgeland, Tenn., Jan. 7, 1917.

MARRIAGES

Byars-Wilson.
OKOLONA, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—E. W. Byars and Miss Kula Wilson of Van Vleet, Miss., were married at the Methodist parsonage here yesterday. Rev. J. B. Randolph performed the ceremony.

NEW EDITION COMING ON
"LIFE OF JEFF DAVIS"
CONWAY, Ark., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—L. S. (Remy) Dunaway, of Conway, has under consideration the publication of 50,000 additional copies of his "Life of Jeff Davis," which may now be bought from the general store at Four Corners as well as New York's best bookshops. The sale of Dunaway's volume does not decrease with years. On the contrary, since it was placed on the market, it has traveled back and forth across the country with ever increasing speed, as though traveling in mythical seven-league boots.

NEGRO TALKS ONCE
TOO OFTEN; IS HELD
Caught unaware while on trial for the theft of a sweater from the John Gerber company, Frank Wright, young negro, got himself into hot water because of his talk Thursday morning. It was alleged he was attempting to shoplift the sweater under his arm. "Guilty or not guilty?" asked the judge.

"Not guilty, sah," replied Wright. "Judge, the sweater was worth $5.00," cut in Officer Lynch, who made the arrest. "Now, sah," exclaimed Wright, "Dat girl told me it wuz $4.00." "Oh-o!" ejaculated the judge. "Held to the grand jury."

CONDITION OF FACTORIES
IN MISSISSIPPI SCORED
JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 5. (Sp.)—A. B. Hobbs, state factory inspector, has just completed a tour of the north and northeastern section of Mississippi, and finds conditions in the textile mills and other factories not altogether satisfactory. In fact, Hobbs reports sanitary conditions.

It was necessary for Hobbs to issue warnings about fire and machinery hazards and to tell many to clean up sanitary things. Hobbs said that he was determined to treat the factories as perfectly fair and square, but where they refused to clean up and mend deplorable conditions after he had called their attention to them, he was going to close them up.
